Chilhowie Defeats Saltville;

A fired up band of head hunting Warriors left no doubt in anybody's mind as to who was champion of the newly formed Hogoheegee District at the Chilhowie field last Friday night.

Twenty-six point underdogs going into the game, the round Warriors completely defied the odd-makers by defeating the highly regarded Saltville Shakers, 32 to 14, before a rain-soaked capacity crowd.

The Shakers were the first to score as bulldozing David Barrett rammed over from the three-yard line on the first series of downs. The try for the two-point PAT was no good.

The Warriors came right back with a beautiful 32-yard touchdown pass from Quarterback Burt Croy to Halfback Reggie Palmer. Tom Hill's kick split the uprights and the Warriors led 7 to 6, at the end of the first quarter.

Chilhowie got on the scoreboard again in the second quarter when Gerald Poe broke up the middle for an 18-yard TD run. Poe set up the touchdown with a spanning 34-yard punt on the preceding play. A pass from Palmer to End Tommy Bishop was good for the two-point conversion.

The fired-up Warriors went to the dressing room at half-time with a 15-6 lead.

With only four minutes gone in the third quarter, Poe scored his second touchdown of the night, when he broke around left end from five yards out. Tom Hill kicked his second extra point of the night, giving the Warriors a commanding 32 to 6 lead.

Poe again set up this TD with a 36-yard punt down the right sideline.

Three minutes later, the Warriors scored again with a punt roaring into the end zone from 18 yards out. Palmer's second was set up by a short punt.

Poe took a pitchout from Croy and sprinted for end right and for the additional two points.

With the Chilhowie lead going wild, the Warriors ran back up the field with a 27-6 lead.

But the Warriors were not through yet. Saltville kicked a Shaker pass on the sideline 40 yards out and ran it all the way down to the Chilhowie 40-yard line. The Warriors' third linebacker of the night, when he punched the block in from the side for the Warriors' final TD. The try for the two points failed.

The Shakers played their final drive on a 15-yard scoring run. Tom Bishop carrying. The PAT attempt was no good as the Shakers ended the game 32 to 14.

The Warriors' defense did an outstanding job all night in being able to contain Barrett and Barrett, Chilhowie coach, he later stated.

Chilhowie's defense had two passes for the Warriors and Palmer also was held by having an outstanding safety defense. He made 10 tackles from his middle linebacker position and intercepted a pass and ran it back to yard setting up the final Warriors score.

FOREWORD

During the 1970-71 session Chilhowie High School made the news headlines on many occasions. Perhaps the most excitement over these newsworthy events came during the football season. After the Warrior team won the Hogoheegee District and regional championships, it went on to capture the State Group A title, ecstatically thrilling the team's many ardent fans.

Though perhaps less exciting, other teams, classes, clubs, individual students and faculty members also made the headlines.

These and other events of the year are recorded in the following pages:

CHS made the biggest headlines of the year during the football season. The small Warrior team, which had astounded many from the beginning of the '70 season by defeating team after team, marched on to take the Region C title and finally the State Group A Championship by defeating the Fluvanna Flucos on a neutral field in Albemarle County on December 5, 1970. Scores of Chilhowie fans invaded Fluco territory to cheer the Warrior team on to victory. Hundreds of others listened to the play by play account on radio and read more detailed report in local newspapers. The team arrived back in Chilhowie amid horns and sirens blowing and crowds cheering the Warrior heroes.

In addition to the football team, other areas of school life made "news" or experienced changes.

The session began under the leadership of a new principal, and six new teachers were added to the teaching staff. The FFA honored Miss Mary P. Copenhaver for her guidance services, the Chilhowie Jaycees selected Mr. William St. John as Outstanding Young Educator of the year, and Mr. Ron Bales was nominated for the County Good-Citizen Award (pictured above). Drama (above right), French III, and music were added to the curriculum.

Other changes were evident as the year progressed. The Beta Club was organized, and a new group of assemblies was introduced (right). Even the appearance of the student body changed with the adoption of some of the latest fashion trends (pictured at far right).

Thus 1970-71 was a year of change and NEWS.

TEACHER AIDE
Mrs. Mary Louise Beckner

The 1970-71 school session began under the leadership of a new principal, Mr. Cleve Compton. A native of Tennessee, Mr. Compton had previously served as teacher and football coach at Chilhowie High School from 1956 to 1965. From the fall of 1965 until his new appointment in the spring of 1970, he served as principal of Chilhowie Elementary School.

Mrs. Roberta D. Clifton, a CHS graduate, who had served as secretary at Chilhowie Elementary School for several years, transferred to a similar position at Chilhowie High School for the 1970-71 session. Mrs. Mary Louise Beckner replaced Mrs. Ann Anderson as a teacher aide.

For the first time in CHS history, the professional help of a psychologist, Dr. Mary Ann Johnson, was made available to the administration and faculty.

The year progressed under the supervision of the Smyth County School Board and Dr. J. Leonard Mauck, Superintendent of Schools.

LIBRARY AND GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

The library and the guidance department provided the opportunity for each student to achieve his highest potential.

Miss Mary P. Copenhaver and Mr. Dwight Barker offered individual counsel (below

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

The Business Department provided students with the opportunity to develop those skills needed in the business world. This year Clerk Typist I and II, both two-hour classes, replaced Office Procedures. These classes included a combination of bookkeeping, typing, and the use of various business machines, such as the calculator, which Joan Worley operates below. Bookkeeping students worked with journals, balance sheets, income statements, and ledger accounts. General Business courses provided practical knowledge, including the preparation of income tax forms. Shorthand and typing proved useful to many students. (Pictured below are Brenda Dempsey, Teresa Frye, Pamela Guyer, and Susan Tilson.)

The Health and Physical Education Department, as in the past, offered in its classes not only the means to develop body strength, but through its varied activities also offered the opportunity for one to grow socially, mentally, and emotionally.

During the school day the department also provided classroom drivers' education. After school and in the summer physical education teachers gave behind-the-wheel instruction to those students who qualified for it.

The Mathematics Department offers courses in both general and college preparatory math. Eighth graders in their math classes studied equations and had an introduction to trig functions, while freshmen not enrolled in Algebra I took general Math 9. The college preparatory courses included algebra, geometry, and trigonometry. Algebra I and II classes spent much time in learning to factor equations, and geometry classes worked with logarithms, geometric proofs, and the slide rule. Trig students used both new information, and information obtained from previous math classes in proving identities.

Students at CHS became associated with the fine arts in music, band, drama, and French classes.

A general music class gave students the opportunity to learn more about the basic terms and fundamentals involved in music. Band members were encouraged to use their talents on an individual basis as well as with a group.

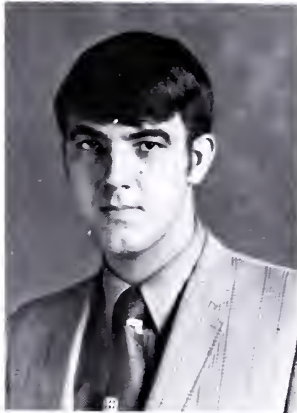

A new class, drama, proved to be very active both on and off the stage. The class presented two one-act plays: "Along Came Harriet," (at left) given as an assembly for the student body, and "Fog on the Valley," given at the District one-act play festival at Rich Valley High School, where it received an Excellent rating. The class made use of their talents by serving as the make-up committee for the Junior play.

French classes were designed to acquaint students with the language of France through a study of grammar, composition, and speech. The new French III class dealt mainly with translation and composition.

General science courses gave eighth and ninth graders an overall look at the earth and its composition, metals and their properties, sound waves, and certain practical knowledge that can be of use in daily life. Through their study of the various species of living organisms, sophomores taking biology learned the similarities between man and animals. Chemistry and physics students became well acquainted with such terms as heterogeneous, titration, chromatic aberration, and thermoexpansion.

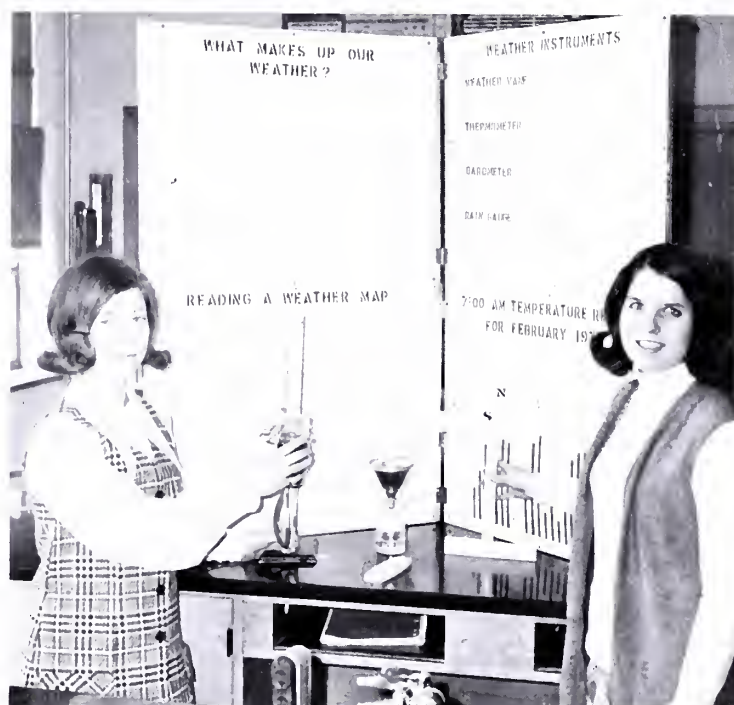

Science projects were made by science students, as well as by interested Science Club members.

The Social Studies Department offered as required subjects American history in the Eighth Grade, United States and Virginia history in the eleventh grade, and United States and Virginia government in the twelfth grade. These courses were designed to promote good citizenship through better understanding of the United States and its people. As electives the department offered classes in world history and global geography. Various methods of instruction included map study, term papers and reports, art work, audio-visual aids, and class and panel discussions.

Y Clubs Promote Good Citizenship

Although the Y clubs — Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Co-Ed Hi-Y have as their goal the development of strong character and good citizenship, they spent much of their school year in providing services to the school and community. These included helping the needy at Thanksgiving and hospital patients at Christmas, collecting Easter Seal donations, and serving refreshments at faculty meetings. They also helped clean the building and ball field, donated a State Champion football jacket and a U.S. flag for the gym, sponsored bake sales and a spirit-chain contest in pep rallies, and attended various club conferences, workshops, the Junior Hi-Y Assembly in Harrisonburg, and Model General Assembly in Richmond. # The Chilazette And The Chilvalee

The 1970-71 Chilazette staff published regular issues of the school paper in which they reported school, class, club, and sports news; special events, senior interviews, polls, jokes, and gossip. The editorials centered around special occasions of the school year.

the yearbook has grown from a forty-eight page, mimeographed paperback with amateur-made pictures pasted in by hand to the present edition of one hundred sixty pages with several color pictures. In addition to pictures made by the staff and adviser, they relied upon the professional photographic service of Mr. Elmer Phillippi, representing Delmar Printing Company. The newly organized Beta Club started its activities with a banquet for members and their parents, at which time pins and certificates were awarded. Other activities included the collection of food and toys for the needy at Christmas and of books and toys for the children's ward at the County hospital, a picnic at Hungry Mother State Park, and a trip to the State convention in Richmond. To pay for these activities they held sock-hops after three ball games, presented a paid assembly, and sold donuts.

The National Honor Society conducted the PTA "Open House" event, presented in cooperation with state troopers an assembly on drug abuse, sponsored the "War of the Bands" competition, and after inducting new members, held a club picnic.

Vocational Clubs Have Varied Programs

The vocational clubs were active during the 1970-71 session. The Future Business Leaders of America participated on "Klub Kwiz," sponsored two variety shows and "Captivity Capers," and sold Christmas candles. School projects included collecting money for the Heart Fund, printing programs for the beauty pageant, and completing payment for the school marquee.

The Future Farmers of America won the Club-of-the-Year award. Their big project was helping in the construction of eighteen new sets of bleachers. They also had an assembly on Mount Rogers National Park area; entered floats in the Apple Festival and Homecoming parades, receiving first and second prizes; held a Parent-

Spring Rally and observed National FHA Week. They contributed to the purchase of Warrior jackets, arranged bulletin boards, and served refreshments at the PTA meeting honoring teachers. They also sponsored bake sales and a spaghetti supper as fund-raising projects. The FHA drew a tighter link between parents and members by sponsoring a banquet entertaining fathers, called "Daddy Date Night," and later honoring the mothers at the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet.

The Warrior Band had an active season. It played at all the football games, including the State championship game. At the Southeastern Band Festival in Bristol it received a Superior rating, Drum Majorette Margaret Clark received first place among twenty entries, and the majorettes received a Division I rating. Mildred Duncan represented the band at All-State. The concert band gave Christmas and spring programs for the public and played at graduation exercises.

The main activities of the Forensic Club during the 1970-71 school year were presenting four broadcasts on WOLD radio, Marion, Virginia, sending representatives to the district forensic festival, and donating money to help purchase jackets for the members of the 1970 State Champion football team.

Subject Clubs Extend Particular Interests

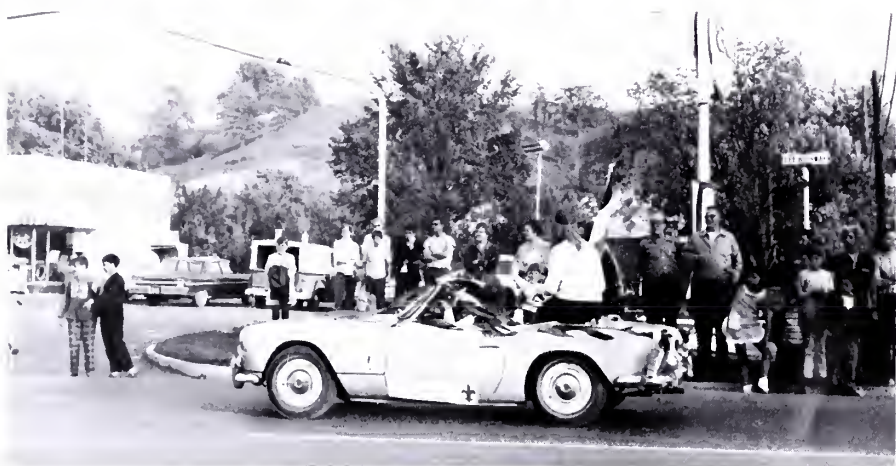

The main projects of Le Cercle Français was the purchase of blackout shades for the language classroom. To make this possible, the club had its usual Thanksgiving turkey "drive" and held "white elephant" sales. The group had varied activities at club meetings, such as an egg hunt at Easter. Pictured above, Donna Cook and Doug Wright pledge allegiance to the French flag.

The Science Club conducted meetings related to the field of science. Members worked on projects which were judged in school competition. At right above Debbie Coley and Rita McGhee display their science projects.

The Student Cooperative Association coordinates school activities and is a liaison between students and faculty. During the 1970-71 session the SCA supervised the homecoming activities, provided sock-hops after home football games, conducted a campaign for suggestions for school improvements, and in the spring supervised vigorous campaigns for new SCA officers. On behalf of the student body the SCA presented Mr. Arnold Mellinger with a souvenir basketball in recognition of his years as basketball coach at CHS.

Students Render Services To The School

The Library Club, besides serving in various ways in the library, made Thanksgiving favors for a nursing home, cleaned the trophy case, gave a program at a faculty meeting and had a picnic. To pay for these projects they sponsored a movie, sold CHS pins and subscriptions to Mount Rogers Citizen.

The Bus Patrol promoted safety and helped keep order on school busses.

The Neighborhood Youth Corps were employed in many capacities around the school.

Athletic Clubs Spark Interest In Sports

A new club was added to the athletic organizations in the fall of 1970 — the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. The purpose in organizing this thirty-member, all-boy club was to establish a definite relationship between Christian living and athletics. The FCA sponsored a faculty-alumni basketball game (left below), a cook-out, and an all-games night.

The Monogram Club, made up of lettermen, sold basketball-schedule pens and Halloween candy. Their contribution to the school included the buying of three banners for the district championships, providing concessions at boys' basketball games, and conducting the awards assembly.

The Girls' Athletic Association sold donuts and sponsored sock hops in order to finance their purchase of gym-suit baskets for the girls' locker rooms.

QUEEN

Kathy Smith

Kathy Smith Is CHS Homecoming Queen

Homecoming — October 2, 1970 — proved to be an exciting and tense occasion for CHS students, alumni, and other Warrior fans. In a colorful parade preceding the football game with Patrick Henry, the Senior Class float was judged best of the outstanding entries. Halftime activities were highlighted by the crowning of Homecoming Queen Kathy

Cheerleaders Boost School Spirit

The Varsity Cheerleaders had an active year cheering the Warrior football team on to the State championship and the basketball team to the regional tournament. Throughout the year they encouraged better school spirit by posters and pep rallies and sponsored a "Mr. and Miss School Spirit" contest (pictured at right). They prepared for these activities at a camp at Virginia Beach, where they won a "spirit stick," five ribbons for excellence, and a plaque honoring the most outstanding squad. They had several money-making projects and gave a party for the football and basketball teams.

Besides cheering at JV games, the Junior-Varsity Cheerleaders conducted a pop bottle-collecting drive, sold Warrior badges, and gave a party for the girls' JV and Varsity basketball teams and one for the 1971-72 cheerleaders.

Juniors And Seniors Present Plays

On November 19, 1970, the Junior class presented a three-act comedy, "Home Sweet Homocide." When a murder takes place next door, Archie Carstairs (Robert Odum) and his two sisters (Teresa Frye and Cricket Wilson) decide to capture the murderer and become famous. However, things are easier said than done. When everyone else wants to get in on the "fun," the three find themselves in a pack of trouble, head over heels.

"No Boys Allowed" was presented by the Senior class on April 29, 1971. The exciting action took place during the evening of Rita Baxter's (Joyce Widener) slumber party. Tension mounts as a midnight prowler (James Bonham) who has been terrorizing the town, steals into the Baxter residence. Further complications develop in Rita's romance with her boyfriend Fred Dana (Jay Bonham). Finally the suspense mounts to a climax, the complications are resolved, and "everyone lives happily ever after."

The Prom Is “A Night To Remember”

The garden of an old medieval castle was the setting of the Junior-Senior Prom on May 15, 1971. The Seniors, their dates, and faculty members were swept back into the romantic past of knights in shining armor when they entered the school cafeteria, which the Junior hosts had beautifully decorated as an old English castle, complete with a drawbridge. There the guests danced to the beat of the 101st Cavalry or sat in the candlelight glow from blue tapers surrounded by blue flowers. At refreshment time guests were served punch, nuts, mints, and cupcakes topped with miniature swords for souvenirs. Each guest also received a memory book in which to record the highlights of "A Night to Remember."

Miss Chilhowie

CHS students were in the news during their school year for their accomplishments in academics, athletics, and extra-curricular activities. Numerous awards were presented to students throughout the school year.

The Miss Chilhowie beauty pageant, an annual event sponsored by the Chilhowie PTA, was held in middle September. Twenty-five contestants were judged on beauty, poise, and talent. Teresa Frye was crowned MISS CHILHOWIE 1970 by Cindy Legard, the 1969 winner. Mildred ("Cricket") Wilson, who enacted the death scene from ROMEO AND JULIET as her talent (below), was chosen first runner-up. Later in September Teresa Frye represented CHS in the Chilhowie Apple Festival beauty contest.

In addition to awards for achievements in athletics and other extra-curricular activities, scholastic awards in various subject fields were given in the awards assembly. Other awards were made at graduation.

Commencement exercises began with the Baccalaureate services Sunday, June 6, when the Rev. Mr. Jerry Conner, pastor of Memorial Presbyterian Church, Elizabethton, Tennessee, challenged the class by asking, "What is that in your hand?"

The class broke with tradition by having graduation exercises on the athletic field Monday evening, June 7, at which time Dr. Sherman Vanaman of Carson-Newman College admonished the seniors to live with responsibility, have perspective about what happiness and freedom are, and believe that there are goals yet to be conquered. Salutatorian Charles Copenhaver and Valedictorian Joyce Widener also challenged the class to do their best in a changing world. After music by the band and presentation of awards, Mr. W. C. Kelly of the School Board awarded diplomas to ninety-four seniors (pictured below).

Hill's Interception Sets Up Winning TD In 7-6 Cliffhanger

By DAVE SPARKS
Herald Courier Sports Editor

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — Courageous Chilhowie (11-2), Southwest Virginia's miracle team with a never-yielding heart, captured the State Group A championship with a 7-6 victory over Fluvanna before a crowd of 3,500 here Saturday afternoon.

The gutty Warriors of Ron Bales struggled through a three and one-half quarter nightmare of frustration before pulling the game out of the fire in the final four minutes.

Gerald Poe scored for Chilhowie with 4:36 remaining and Tom Hill's perfect placement through the uprights turned the nightmare into a dream as Chilhowie had a 7-6 lead and the crown jewels.

PRIOR to the late touchdown, Chilhowie had been penalized 102 yards, lost 10 fumbles and had horrible punting of 15 and nine yards that kept Warriors' back against the wall 90 per cent of the afternoon.

Nothing went right for Warriors until the chips were on the table at the end.

The first, and only break of the day for Chilhowie came in the final five minutes when Tom Hill intercepted a Fluvanna pass and returned it to the Fluco 16.

With the Warrior crowd on their feet, Chilhowie moved forward for the kill.

Poe ran the football five times and the fourth carry netted the tying touchdown.

Hill's PAT, which beat W 15-14 a week ago, again was the clincher.

THE STUBBORN Warrior defense stopped Fluvanna at the Chilhowie 21-yard line, and nine yards from the goal line with tremendous goalposts stands the second half.

The big stand came when Fluvanna at first and goal at Chilhowie seven and ahead.

On fourth and goal at Chilhowie one, Fluvanna back Bo Agee, a 160-pounder, blasted up the middle.

He was met by the Warrior defense led by LeCompte, Hill, Regan, Palko, Mike Doe and end Tom. The Warrior defense held Agee at the 10-yard line. That was in line with Fluco, who could have broken the game wide open with a touchdown at the goal.

The Warrior Football team began the 1970 season slowly with the first game lost to Marion. After recovering from this minor setback and defeating Holston and Rich Valley in their next two games, the Warriors clashed with the favored Saltville Shakers for the Hogoheegee District Title. The game reversed all predictions. The Warriors gained control in the first quarter and did not let go until the final whistle. The final score stood CHS 36 Saltville 12.

After winning the Hogoheegee District title, the Warriors defeated the top three contenders in the Mountain Empire District and gained a berth in the Regional C playoff. On November 20 the Warriors battled the Natural Bridge Blue Devils, Alleghany District winner, for the Region C title. The Warriors stunned them 31-6 in a rugged home contest. This victory entitled the Warriors to play Lonesome Pine and Region D champions, the Indians from J.J. Kelly High School of Wise, Virginia. The Chilhowie administrators worked against the clock to obtain the necessary 5,000 seats for this game. An overflow crowd viewed the tense contest that was finally decided on Tom Hill's PAT kick following a razzle-dazzle touchdown play by Chilhowie, making the final score CHS 15-Wise 14.

Warriors Are State Champs

On December 5, 1970, the Chilhowie Warriors vied with the Flying Flucos of Fluvanna County on the athletic field of Albemarle County. At first Fluvanna surged into the lead after marching forty-five yards to score early in the first quarter, but Chilhowie's defense held their ground while the Warrior offense began to jell. The first break came to Chilhowie late in the fourth quarter when Tom Hill intercepted a Fluvanna pass. After four plays Gerald Poe drove across for the touchdown, and Tom Hill made the winning PAT. With four minutes left on the clock, Chilhowie gave little ground, and the final score stood CHS 7 — Fluvanna 6. As the final whistle blew, the crowd of Warrior fans emptied onto the field to watch the Warrior team receive their State Championship trophy. (Team names — page 120)

Chilhowie Warriors Take District

The Warrior Varsity basketball team captured its unprecedented fourth straight district crown this season. The Warriors played their toughest schedule ever, playing teams from Tennessee, North Carolina, and Southwest Virginia's finest clubs. The Warriors proved victorious many times against schools twice their size.

Three Warrior players won All-District honors, and one player, Tom Bishop, was placed on the five-member, All-Region C Tournament team for his outstanding performance.

Coach Mellinger, who is a graduate of Carson-Newman College, has an overall record at CHS of 150 wins-86 losses. His best season was 69-70 with 21 wins-3 losses. While he was coaching the Warriors, CHS won four consecutive District championships, two County championships, and four consecutive berths in the Regional playoffs. Mr. Mellinger was named Southwest Virginia Coach-of-the-Year (68-69), District Coach-of-the-Year for two consecutive years (68-70).

We congratulate Mr. Mellinger on his success and wish him the best of everything at Emory & Henry College.

Wrestlers Place In District And State

With only two seniors on the team, this year's young wrestling team showed promise for the future. Seven of the twelve starters were freshmen. Outstanding wrestlers on the 70-71 squad were Mike Coe, who finished third in the State at 184 pounds; Weaver Cole, who took a fourth in the state at 112 pounds; and Steve Smith, who won the Hogoheeg District championship at 132 pounds.

Former Smyth Students Edit College Newspaper

Two Smyth County students have edited the first issue of the Virginia Highlands Newsletter, "The Unit." They are Sue Blevins and Marlene Dunford, both of whom attended Chilhowie High School.

Marlene is a college transfer student, planning to go on to a four-year college or university and become a teacher. Sue is taking accounting, along with English and math, hoping to gain enough skill to account for work in an office after she is married.

These students, along with instructor William Van Kester, published a comprehensive newsletter giving a varied picture of the activities and programs at Virginia Highlands. The Newsletter, as well as the Orientation Dance Saturday night were highlights of the Student Leadership Conference held on the campus this summer. Representatives from local high schools who students are attending Virginia Highlands attended the Conference. Another facet of student activities which they planned the development of intramural sports on the campus.

CONCLUSION

As the school year 1970-71 draws to a close and we pause to look back and evaluate the session, we realize more than ever that this has been an unusual year in many ways — a year in which CHS made many news headlines, a year of many changes, a year to remember. We trust that the "past is prologue" to the future, that our year here at CHS has given us the foundation, the perspective, the determination to forge ahead and achieve in the future in whatever fields we enter.
